SEPTEMBER 2011 MISSIONS UPDATE:

BURKINA FASO WEST AFRICA

Dr. Mike Pangio sent Rev. Axe Freeman (our Abundant Ministry Director of Benin, West Africa) to Burkina Faso for the opening of two Abundant Ministries bible schools in this French speaking nation. Fifty percent of the population of this nation is Moslem, forty percent of the population practice the worship of ancestors and demon spirits, ten percent of the population of Burkina Faso is Christian. Burkina Faso is ranked the third poorest nation of the world. To give you an idea of how poor this country is in comparison to Haiti: Haiti does not even make the top ten list of the poorest nations of the world, but Haiti is the poorest nation in the western hemisphere.

Abundant Ministries provided the International School of Ministry video bible school curriculum which will enable each graduate to obtain an accredited Associate in Theology Degree, as well as providing a generator, DVD player, and television for the bible schools.

Rev. Freeman spent three weeks of the month of August and the first week of September training our new Bible School Director in Burkina Faso. Pastor Seika Kone answered the call of God for becoming our Abundant Ministries Director in Burkina Faso. I ask that you keep Rev. Kone in your prayers, as our brother labors in the Kingdom of God training leaders, and planting new churches with the bible school graduates as they go forth with the Gospel of Jesus Christ in this nation that lies in great spiritual darkness. We thank God for the open doors as our new bible schools in Burkina Faso are located in the cities of Ouagadougou and Bobo. Rev. Freeman did an excellent job meeting with dozens of Senior Pastors who are now participating in the bible school.
